A WORLD CLASS MARKET PRECINCT

The City of Melbourne is making the largest investment in its history to preserve and renew the Queen Victoria Market, creating one of the world’s great market precincts.

Following a comprehensive renewal program, the City of Melbourne will seek UNESCO World Heritage listing for the Queen Victoria Market.

The renewal will preserve the Queen Victoria Market’s heritage and authentic atmosphere, while allowing the market precinct to evolve to meet the contemporary needs of traders, shoppers and the growing city.
